Halogen TalentSpace suite at a glance

Every product in the Halogen TalentSpace suite is designed to address the needs of any organization that must attract, engage, develop and inspire employees to deliver results that matter to their people and their business.

With Halogen Performance™, it's never been easier to transform your employee performance review cycle from a painful administrative burden to a collaborative, ongoing and strategic process. One that helps you build a high-performance culture where employees are aligned, inspired and focused on delivering exceptional results. Offering flexible forms, automated workflows and built-in feedback and development tools, you can configure your performance processes your way.

Halogen 1:1 Exchange™ is the essential tool for organizations that want to change the way their people manage performance. Give managers and employees an easy way to stay aligned, engaged and focused on achieving real-time performance outcomes by using a simple, interactive, centralized way to track and collaborate on goals and projects, exchange meaningful feedback, provide coaching, discuss career development opportunities, or any issue that matters all – on a regular, ongoing basis.

Seamlessly integrated in the Halogen TalentSpace suite, Halogen 360 Multirater™ is ideal for collecting valuable, rich feedback to support employee development and high performance. It's a flexible, simple-to-use tool that provides all the features you need to conduct comprehensive 360-degree assessments during employee appraisals, as part of a project evaluation, or as part of a talent assessment for succession planning.

All employees need to know their current job responsibilities and clearly understand what's expected of them. Using Halogen Job Description Builder™ with the rest of the Halogen TalentSpace modules allows you to automatically generate appraisal and assessment forms and job requisitions based on your job descriptions.

Give your workforce the tools they need to be high performers and great leaders with Halogen Accelerator™ – an exclusive offering from Halogen Software and Development Dimensions International (DDI). Halogen Accelerator is DDI's best-in-class competency framework and world-renowned library of leadership learning experiences, seamlessly integrated with Halogen's TalentSpace™ suite, giving employees what they need to succeed now and in the future.

Schedule, manage and track all learning activities, and easily measure the effectiveness of your training investments in terms of improved employee performance with Halogen Learning™. Track certification and licensing status and expiries. Create learning paths to address competency development, compliance needs, or learning styles. Add your own internal learning content, integrate best-in-class eLearning courseware from our renowned content partners, or add external eLearning-compliant training from a third-party courseware provider.

HALOGEN Compensation™

Drive true accountability into your compensation plans and reward your workforce accurately and fairly, based on real, measurable performance. With Halogen Compensation™, all management levels have a secure, simple-to-use tool for distributing merit-based compensation, including base salary, variable pay, promotions, lump sum awards, bonus pay and stock options. It even automates budget distribution, approvals and tracking.

HALOGEN Succession™

Get best-practice talent pool-based succession planning that ensures every section, department and division in your organization has a large pool of employees ready to step into new roles. Utilizing Halogen Succession™, you can expertly cultivate talent from within your organization, through targeted individual, organizational and leadership development programs that align with your strategic plan.

HALOGEN Talent Acquisition™

powered by Jobvite

Halogen Talent Acquisition™ powered by Jobvite is designed to strategically leverage all the important aspects of a complete talent management system – to attract, engage, develop and inspire talent. With Halogen Talent Acquisition, you can ensure your talent acquisition process is strategically aligned and connected with your overall talent management strategy.

“Fundamental to employee engagement is facilitating learning and feedback, and understanding the objectives of the organization and how they fit into it. The satisfaction of our employees affects how well they interact with patients, families and internal customers.”
